Bobbitt With His Ottenheim Friends.

OTTENHEIM, Dec. 25th. — I spoke here yesterday evening and last night in the commodious hall of Charles Ensslin. They say they will get me up a law school here of $100 per month. Our great friend, Simon Petrey, was present and said he would attend and pay $20 per month. These people have indeed made the desert bloom as the rose. What a change wrought by industry and perseverance! I saw a young lady in my audience who was the most beautiful German girl I ever saw. That does not express the meaning wide enough. She was the most beautiful girl I ever saw and she was German. My host, Ensslin, has for his "frau" the very quintessence of all Germany. A more veritable queen never reigned in the culinary department. Mr. Ensslin is the very embodiment of noble generosity. He and his brigade of noble boys took absolute possession of me and I have made his house my home during this most pleasant trip to the Highlands of Lincoln. I am writing these few lines in the store of John Wentzel, a prosperous German merchant, and Simon Petrey is his clerk, my friend and your subscriber and admirer. This is a cold Christmas morning and a gay time here. I stayed all night at the hospitable home of John H. Sailor Saturday night and he insisted I should join him in a game of "seven-up." We played it seven and I beat him five times and he beat me five, but what is most remarkable I turned the jack seven times. He said he had played all his life but never saw the like before. I do not play even for fun, but I could not resist the importunities of a clever man in his own house. Church bell ringing. FOSTAKE FOX BOHUTT.

OTTENHEIM.

Mrs. G. M. Ballard, of Somerset, is visiting friends and relatives in this section.

Mrs. Henry Manda has the honor of having the nicest Christmas tree in Ottenheim.

Miss Rebecca Mullins, who taught the Ottenheim school, gave an entertainment and a treat to her pupils Friday.

Henry Woods bought of Ed Bowen a family mare for $50. John Bowen sold a nice combined mare to Henry James for $100.

Some of the boys in this section met on Brummit's peak and had a brilliant display of fireworks Christmas night. It could be seen for miles.

Mrs. F. C. Manuel gave a temperance recitation at the Pine Grove Christmas tree that was very touching and every slave to strong drink should have heard it.

Miss Maggie Livingston, who has recently recovered from a severe spell of typhoid fever, was able to beat Sunday school Sunday, much to the delight of her host of friends. Ed Ballard was up from Somerset for a short visit during the holidays. Mrs. James Hammonds, of Richmond, is visiting her father, J. A. James.

The Christmas tree at Pine Grove church was a decided success. The tree was handsomely decorated and trimmed and the good citizens deserve much credit for their unceasing efforts in their noble deeds of charity. The entertainment by the Sunday school pupils was very creditable. Little Myrtle James, aged five, took the premium for the manner in which she recited and sang and played.

KINGSVILLE.

All members of the Pleasant Point church are earnestly requested to be present at our next meeting, Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 6th and 7th, 1906. R. R. Noel, pastor.

Miss Howe, of Cincinnati, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Lane.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years from rheumatism," says W. H. Howard of Husband, Pennsylvania. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried. In fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by all druggists.

HIGHLAND.

Garrett Berry, who has been quite sick with pneumonia, is improving.

After a successful term, Miss Annie McKee's school came to a close Friday evening with a delightful entertainment, which showed careful training by both teacher and pupils.

The Christmas tree and entertainment given at Mt. Moriah by the teachers of the Sunday school and Miss Mary Wilson, teacher of the public school, was an enjoyable occasion to all present. The pupils of each school were kindly remembered with a nice present and a treat of candy and nuts.

Miss Ora Hutchison has returned from a visit to relatives at Walton. Mart Bastin spent Christmas with his children at Pittsburg. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Waters, of Louisville, spent the holidays with Charles Warfield and wife. Miss Ollie James, who has a position in the High School at Anderson, Ind., is at home for a week with her mother. Mrs. Mattie James, who has recently moved here from Mercer. Harley Adams and wife have gone to Franklin, Ind., to reside. Mason and David Goodpastor, of Brannon, are here and two of Highland's prettiest girls are wearing their sweetest smiles. Miss Hannah Meier is at home from college at Louisville, where she is taking a business course. Mrs. J. M. Atkins will spend the winter at Frankfort with her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Milton.

The two general committees representing the Northern Presbyterian and Cumberland Presbyterian Churches, by unanimous vote in joint session at St. Louis agreed on a basis for the union of the two churches.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best Made.

"In my opinion Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. Corn Walker, of Porterville, California. "There is no doubt about it being the best. No other will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventive of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. These are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with any other after having once used this remedy. For sale by all druggists."

Prof. Smith's graduates have secured fine positions in banks, mercantile and other enterprises, receiving $75 to $100 per month by investing $65 for tuition and board at Prof. Smith's College. Before attending, they received about $25. Write him and he will send you circulars and information how you can do the same. Address Wilbur R. Smith, Lexington, Ky.

The Short Ends

of Woolens, Cottons, Glenghams, Percalines, White Goods, Etc., must get out to make room for new full bolts of new goods for white sewing. So we have marked the price so low that it don't take you long to get on good terms with a nice bunch of these remnants.

Our Customers,

The one thing needful to the merchandise business, have made the year that is now closing one of the very best in the history of our business. We have put forth our best efforts to get what you want and at the price you want and you have done the rest. Without your efforts would have been in vain. "What can we do for you." We will do this; we will try to do even better in 1906. Again thanking you for your liberal patronage we ask you to "call again."

Those Who Wait

To buy Cloaks, Suits, Skirts or Furs, don't have as large a line to select from, but the big cut in price compensates for this loss of great variety. In many cases the price is just one-half. These are just as good and stylish as any shown this season, but our unvarying rule to carry none over calls for a small price.

STRANGE ADVICE!

Dr. G. G. Green gives alert personal attention to his great humanitarian contract. In our Almanac for many years past we have given unusual advice to those afflicted with coughs, colds, throat or lung troubles or consumption. We have told them if they did not receive any special benefit after the use of one 75-cent size bottle of German Syrup, to consult their doctor. We did not ask them or urge them to use a large number of bottles, as in the case in the advertising of many other remedies. Our confidence in German Syrup makes it possible for us to give such advice. We know by the experience of over 35 years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchitis or lung troubles—and that, even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.
